

William Brigham has over 30 years experience in substance abuse prevention, education and treatment and is currently the Administrator of the National Football League Program for Substances of Abuse.

Mr. Brigham has worked in various modalities of substance abuse treatment including methadone maintenance, residential, and outpatient settings. He has served as a consultant to the NFL Personal Conduct Policy and the NFL Player Development Department.

He has taught at several universities over the past 25 years in the areas of chemical dependency counseling, sociology, and film studies. Mr. Brigham has developed and overseen a chemical dependency counselor training degree program at the university level.

Mr. Brigham was appointed by the Board of Supervisors to the Drug Abuse Advisory Boards of Fresno and San Diego Counties, and served on the Board of the Coalition for Quality Health Care in San Diego.